HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

THE MAMMOTH OX!
TO THE PEOPLE OF OREGON: LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS!
F. M. MORRIS AND W. C. AVERY,
BOTH OLD OREGONIANS AND HAVING, NO doubt,
THE LARGEST OX IN THE WORLD!
proposes to the people of Oregon to take this Monster OX to the Atlantic States and exhibit the same as an Oregon production; and before leaving the State they wish every man, woman and child to see Mt. Hood upon Legs!
and in order to give them an opportunity, they will exhibit him in the principal towns on the Willamette, for the sum of 25 cents, children half price. Their object in doing this is to raise the necessary cash to pay transportation. All those who think it would have a tendency to wake up the people of the Eastern States to realize the fact that there is such a place as Oregon on the Pacific Slope, and that not only large cattle but every thing else is far in advance of the rest of the world, and that all that is required is industry and economy to realize a fortune in Oregon in a few years at most—and the best place to enjoy life after you have accumulated a fortune.

Business men—make a note of this and remember—MONEY MAKES THE OX GO, and patronize accordingly.

The MAMMOTH OX has been removed to the corner of Morrison and Third streets, where he can be seen through the day and until 10 o'clock at night.

W. C. Avery will also have a supply of MRS. STIPP'S THORACIC BALSAM on hand. m27dtf

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JUNE 9.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—An order assigning Captain Baldwin to duty in connection with the registration in Virginia has been revoked. He is ordered to duty as an Indian agent.

During the absence of the President private secretary Porter will remain on duty, in charge of the Executive office.

Several of the most prominent clerks connected with the Secretary's office in the Treasury Department were removed this morning. Among them were S. C. Marsh, F. V. Rollinson, B. F. Duane and E. Samuel Cutts, of the warrant division. The two former have been in charge of the general account and public debt statement for a number of years. The two warrant offices have been consolidated into one division, under E. B. Saville, who will hereafter have charge of the public debt statement.

Charles Waldron, of the warehouse division in the Secretary's office, has been removed and W. A. Shanon, chief of that division, has resigned.

The President has appointed Dwight C. Marsh Collector of Customs for the District of Texas, New Mexico and Paso del Norte.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue says that parties engaged in packing pork and beef and putting it up in barrels, and rendering lard for sale, should be required to pay a special tax as manufacturers, and return their sales in excess of $1,250 dollars, and pay a tax of $2 on such excess.

A. H. Stephens of Georgia has a letter in one of the Washington papers to-day in reply to some criticisms on his history of the rebellion. He takes a very gloomy view of the situation, and argues that we are drifting to consolidation into an empire. Nothing, he says, can prevent the final establishment of imperialism but a determined effort on the part of the people to preserve free institutions. The remedy, he says, is not in secession; that was tried and found insufficient. It must be at the ballot box. He calls upon the people of the several States to seriously consider whether they will maintain free institutions or accept imperialism.

Information from reliable sources in Havana show that the Cubans are making an active offensive movement. They were never in better spirits or more sanguine of success. Telegrams from Havana deny the report that any Cubans or any officers of the Cuban forces have surrendered to Valmazedoc.

This afternoon Col. Manuel Freyer was introduced to the President and received his credentials as envoy.

CHICAGO, June 9.—A Journal's special says the new Peruvian Minister was presented to the President to-day. The customary speeches were made.

Secretary Boutwell has issued an order forbidding Treasury employees giving information to claim agents.

The National Grand Division of the Sons of Temperance were received by the President at the executive mansion at one o'clock. R. M. Faust of Pennsylvania, Most Worthy Patriarch, made the congratulatory speech, followed by Dr. Seele, of England. Attempts to coax the President into making a speech failed.

New York Dispatches.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The steamer Henry Chauncey, from Aspinwall June 1st, has arrived.

Robert C. Schenck sailed for Europe in the Java.

Col. Kelly, who was rescued at Manchester, England, by Larkin, Gould and O'Brien, has been appointed superintendent of the city sub post offices.

Judge Blatchford has granted a motion to bind the Quaker City, and appointed appraisers to make a valuation.

The Express learns from a reliable source that a committee of the Central Cuban Junta are treating with the owners of a fast screw steamer of 700 tons to convey 300 men and a large supply of ammunition to Cuba.

The hotel waiters' strike ended in a victory for the proprietors. Not twenty of the strikers have been taken back.

The Typographical Union.

ALBANY, June 9.—The Typographical Union to-day reconsidered the vote excluding proxy representation. After a long debate a resolution was adopted declaring these proxy delegates to be admitted as a courtesy, not as a right, and that henceforth proxies not actually elected by the Unions they represent should not be admitted.

Affairs in Kansas.

ST. LOUIS, June 9.—A dispatch from Ellsworth, Kansas, says Capt. Whitney, from the Saline river, reports that the Indians have departed from the settlement and the settlers are in better spirits since the arrival of the scouts. No Indians have been seen in this vicinity to day, though a number of bands are reported going south yesterday. A large number of settlers from Elkhorn and other places came in to day for arms, but could not get any from the Government or State authorities.

The passenger traffic on this end of the road is more than double what it was before the Indian excitement gave apparent spice to travel. Gov. Harvey has applied for three regiments of cavalry to serve one year against the Indians.

St. Paul Dispatch.

ST. PAUL, June 9.—The Dispatch says 44,000,000 feet of logs have passed Sauk Rapids this year. About 12,000,000 feet are yet to come.

About a dozen carts, the advance guard of the annual Red river fur train, passed through St. Cloud on Monday. The main train will be along in a few days.

Arkansas Affairs.

MEMPHIS, June 9.—Arkansas papers give encouraging accounts of the crops in that State, in spite of the unfavorable aspect at the beginning of the season.

The hot springs are crowded with invalids. A paper has been started there which advocates that the Government shall take possession of the springs.

Judge Caldevetts, of the United States District Court, in session at Van Buren, has ruled that Indians and residents of the Indian country can be taken as bail in criminal cases in the district court, as security on bonds.

Murder in Georgia.

AUGUSTA, June 9.—A letter from Sandersville, Washington county, states that Col. R. W. Florney, Democratic Representative in the Legislature, was murdered in his own field yesterday by a negro man in his employ. The negro has been committed to jail.

Boston Dispatches.

BOSTON, June 9.—The prohibitory liquor bill, except the cider clause, passed the House to day by 152 to 67.

President Grant will attend the opening ceremonies of the Peace Jubilee and be the guest of the city. Gov. Claflin has ordered a military escort for the occasion.

Woman's Rights Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 9.—In the Woman's Rights Convention to day, after considerable debate, resolutions were adopted that the possession of any God given faculty presupposes the right of its use; and whereas men and women were created equal in moral powers, therefore,

Resolved, That their right to use those powers are equal and legal restrictions are unnecessary and wrong.

Resolved, That one class cannot prohibit or represent the interests of another, and to secure justice to all, all must have a voice in making and enforcing the laws.

Resolved, That wherever woman has had an opportunity she has proved herself man's equal with refining influence superadded.

Resolved, That we will in all ways labor to remove the legal disabilities that now trammel woman's efforts, and we are proud of all our representatives in Congress who favor the sixteenth amendment, feeling that women are quite as competent as negroes to judiciously exercise the elective franchise.

South America.

NEW YORK, June 9.—The steamer Henry Chauncey brings Bogota advices to the 2d of May. There are reports of serious trouble throughout that republic, and it is thought the Union will soon break up. The Presidential election resulted in favor of the Government.

A row occurred in the streets of Bogota in which one was killed and five wounded badly.

The elections for Senators and Representatives at Panama resulted in favor of the Ministrate party.

The Ariquipa railroad is progressing rapidly.

Miscellaneous.

PHILADELPHIA, June 9.—The newly organized society for the prevention of cruelty to animals commenced operation to-day by arresting city car drivers for overloading their cars.

HALIFAX, June 9.—In the Assembly to-day the Attorney General alluded to the subject of the repeal of the Union act. He said the British Legislature has not power to tax Nova Scotia, therefore, it has not power to alter her constitution. The provinces must be liberated from the Union. Mild measures had already been taken for this object; now they were about to try stronger measures. He moved the Attorney General of Nova Scotia be authorized to obtain in the higher English Courts a judicial opinion as to her forced union with Canada. He stated that if, after all, the freedom of the province could not be secured, they would have to resort to extreme steps. He did not, however, intimate what those steps should be. The debate attracted little interest.

John Tobin, ex member of the Legislature, committed suicide by shooting himself this forenoon.

PARIS, June 8.—The following are the official returns of the recent elections: Government candidates, 30; Opposition, 28; unknown, 1. The general result throughout the country is now accurately known. The next Corps Legislatif will be composed of Government 213, Independent 42, Radicals 35.

Serious riots occurred at Nantes and Bordeaux yesterday.

MADRID, June 8.—The project for a regency was debated at great length in the Cortes yesterday. At last it was referred to a committee. During the discussion Alaza stated that the election of a King at the present time is impossible.

VIENNA, June 8.—It is reported that a treaty has been made by the commission appointed by the Turkish and Persian governments to arrange the boundary between the two countries.

LONDON, June 8.—Dispatches from Cork mention that Johnson, a printer, was arrested in that city on the charge of being connected with the Fenians. The particular offense consisted in his circulating treasonable documents among the soldiers.

The emigration to America is setting out very strongly. Eight hundred left last week.

The Cherokee Land Imbroglio.

The Cherokee Neutral Lands, which are now the scene of some public disturbance, are situated in the northeast corner of the Indian Territory, but are within the jurisdiction of the State of Kansas. They are bounded on the north by Kansas, on the east by Missouri, and on the south and west by other Indian reservations. They consist of 800,000 acres of very beautiful and fertile land. This tract was bought by the Cherokee Nations from the United States Government, in 1835, for the sum of $500,000 cash, and a patent was issued vesting the title in the tribe in fee simple. In the treaty, by virtue of which the land was deeded to the Cherokees, the United States agreed to keep all intruders off, which agreement was faithfully observed—a body of troops being stationed there to eject trespassers. Several times intruders were forcibly expelled and their fences and buildings burned by order of the government.

In July, 1866, the Cherokees made a new treaty with the government, in which they ceded these lands to the United States in trust, to be sold for cash, for not less than $800,000, the proceeds to be invested in United States registered bonds, for the benefit of the Cherokee Nation. A proviso was inserted by the Senate, and agreed to by the Cherokees, protecting the right of settlers who had occupied land at the date of ratification of the treaty, giving them the right to purchase one hundred and sixty acres each, at an appraised value not less than one dollar and a quarter per acre.

Under this treaty the Secretary of the Interior (Mr. Harlan) made a contract with a Connecticut Company, selling the whole tract at one dollar per acre on long time, with only $25,600 paid down. The language of the treaty authorized him to sell "to a responsible party for cash." In defending his action, which was sharply criticised, Mr. Harlan said that the words "for cash" were intended to prevent the sale of the lands for Cherokee script, and that if they meant cash down, the requirement that they should be sold "to a responsible party" would have been useless. The Attorney General of the United States, however, took a different view of the matter, and the sale was declared void. In the following year (October 1867,) Mr. James F. Joy, of Detroit, for himself and others interested in the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Galveston Railway, made a contract with Mr. Browning (the then Secretary of the Interior,) in pursuance of public advertisement, for the lands at one dollar per acre, cash down. He also paid the Connecticut Company seventy or eighty thousand dollars to avoid a lawsuit with them.

Meanwhile the lands had been occupied by settlers in addition to those whose preemptions had been recognized and protected by the treaty. There are now about twenty thousand persons on the land, and the railroad was being rapidly built to and through the tract when the recent disturbance took place. A few days ago a mob assembled and drove off the engineers, and threatened to tear up the track if it was laid down on the neutral lands. Affairs are now at a standstill, and it is reported that the railway company have applied to the President of the United States for protection to their engineers and other employes engaged in building the road.

Negro testimony is right in principle. It is demanded by common sense. No arguments against it can meet with the arguments in favor of it. It is needed by the black man; it is needed still more by the white man. We hear nothing in opposition to it except a considerable amount of feeble talk about "entering-wedges" and "stepping-stones." Until we legalize it we shall be cursed with negro superiority in regard to one of the greatest and most sacred prerogatives of American citizenship. Was the brand, set by the Lord upon the brow of Cain, a white brand?—Louisville Courier Journal, Democratic.

It is stated as a fact that speculators in Wisconsin have sold over and over again during the last twenty years five sections of land whose location is in Lake Winnebago, under at least twenty feet of water, and is still in the market. The price paid on some occasions has been as high as ten thousand dollars.

Facts About Wool.

The quantity of wool consumed by American manufactures in the years specified below is given as follows by the Chicago Journal of Commerce:

In 1862, 104,862,000 pounds, of which 49,862,000 were imported from abroad. In 1863, the consumption was 149,265,000 pounds, of which 98,520,000 pounds, or nearly two-thirds, were imported. This paucity of production as compared with the amount of consumption was undoubtedly due to the war then raging at its fiercest. In 1865, the amount manufactured was 141,721,000 pounds, of which 48,721,000 pounds were from foreign countries, showing a reduction of importation of 40,000,000 pounds as compared with 1863. In 1866, we used 150,000,000 pounds, and imported 50,000,000. In 1867, the consumption decreased to 147,131,000 and the importation dropped to 80,000,000. The quantity used in manufactures during 1868 is estimated at 150,000,000 pounds, of which only 24,334,000 were imported. This shows a very material reduction of imported wool as compared with 1863. The above figures are given in round numbers. The whole amount of wool remaining unused in the country on the 1st of April, 1869, is estimated at 10,711,000 pounds, of which 5,077,000 belonged to Ohio and five other States west. The sheep now raised in that section are of crossed Merino, Spanish and French breeds, three-quarters full blood; but experience has shown that the demand is for a coarser and longer staple, and farmers are advised to introduce the Leicestershire breed from Canada, both to improve the mutton qualities of their sheep, and to produce the sort of wool most in demand. The manufacture of worsteds, commenced in this country within three years, requires a longer and not so fine a staple as that yielded by Western sheep, while the tendency of our domestic trade is in the direction of heavy rather than the finer fabrics.

The Valley of the Mississippi.

The Mississippi is the King of Rivers. Taking rise almost in the northern limit of the temperate zone, it pursues its majestic course nearly due south to the verge of the tropic, with its tributaries washing the Alleghanies on the one hand and the Rocky Mountains on the other, throughout the entire length of these mountain chains. The Amazon, or La Plata, may possibly bear to the sea an equal volume of waters, the Nile flows through more uniformly genial climates, and ripples over grandeur and more ancient relics of the infancy of mankind; the Ganges, or the Hoang-ho, may be immediately blended with the joys and griefs, the fears and hopes, of more millions of human beings; while the Euphrates, the Danube, or the Rhine, is far richer in historic associations and bloody, yet glorious, memories; but the Mississippi still justifies its proud appellation of "The Father of Waters." Its valley includes more than one million square miles of the richest soil on earth, and is capable of sustaining in plenty half the population of the globe; its headsprings are frozen half the year, while cane ripens and frost is rarely seen at its mouth; and a larger and a richer area of its surface is well adapted to Indian corn, to wheat, and to grass, to the apple, the peach, and the grape—than of any other commensurate region of earth. Its immense prairies are gigantic natural gardens, which need but the plow to adapt them to the growth of the most exacting and exhausting plants. It is the congenial and loved home of the choicest animals; I judge that more game is now roving at will over its immeasurable wilds and pastures than is found on an equal area in all the world besides. It is the geographical heart of North America, and probably contains fully half the arable land in the New World north of the Isthmus of Darien.—Harper's Magazine.

THE PAPERS OF GEN. ST. CLAIR.—It is stated that the descendants of General Arthur St. Clair, an officer of the Revolutionary times, and whose remains are now [illegible] in the cemetery at Greensburg, Pa., near which place he died in August, 1818, aged eighty-four years, are very poor and in needy circumstances. At his death General St. Clair left his papers, which filled three large chests, to his daughter, Mrs. Graham, who upon her decease transmitted them to her son. The recent death of the latter has brought the existence of the papers to public knowledge, as they were sacredly kept intact, no one being allowed to look at much less examine them. One of the chests contains the General's Revolutionary correspondence, comprising three thousand valuable letters from the most distinguished officers and patriots, more than one hundred of them being from Gen. Washington. In some of the brief histories of Western Pennsylvania there are published a few letters from Washington to St. Clair, but how insignificant these would appear if the historian could get possession of the above correspondence no one could estimate. The other two chests are said to be more valuable in a historical point of view, as they are represented to be really the archives of the Northwest Territory, and contain twenty thousand manuscripts. All of these papers were tendered by their owners to the State of Ohio, and at the late session of the Legislature, the Senate passed a bill appropriating money for their purchase, but it failed in the House for want of time. It is now said that the descendants of St. Clair, pressed by their necessities, have determined to sell these papers to whoever will purchase them, and if not disposed of soon, will take them to Cincinnati to be sold at auction.

Advice by a writer in the Paris Journal Amusant: "If a lady says to you 'I can never love you,' wait a little longer, all hope is not lost. But if she says 'No one has more sincere wishes for your happiness than I,' take your hat."

THE INDIAN DEPARTMENT.—The re-organization of this department is done by the President under existing laws of Congress, which have for years authorized the detail of army officers for that service. The grand change of agents resulted from the enormous frauds that have corrupted the administration of the former system to the great scandal and disgrace of the Government. There was power enough among those interested in perpetuating the abuse to defeat the attempts at reform made in Congress. The bloated leeches who have in years past made fortunes out of the reckless manner of supplying Indians by purchasing for them worthless goods through [illegible] of unfaithful officers, and those who have profited by their perfidy succeeded for a time. The inconsiderate sarcasms about "bread-brime" and "shad bellies," is poor argument against any honest effort to place the Indians in better hands than the swindling crew who have plundered the Indians and the Government alike. Of [illegible], there have been and there are now, some honest, capable and faithful agents—exceptions to the general rule of profligacy and plundering. By this reorganization, some such men will fall; but such exceptions are probably so rare that no change could make matters worse than they have been. At all events the change will be the beginning of a new era for which we may [illegible] reasonably anticipate a better history. If it be true that we have a number of good officers in the army, who can be used in this way, the Indian service could be more [illegible] administered by them than by paying them as [illegible] and the civil appointees as agents. They are quite as likely to be reliable, honest and faithful as any equal [illegible] of men in civil life, especially if the latter are to be [illegible], as in former years, on account of their having [illegible] political services to some man or to some party organization. It is quite time that these and all [illegible] should be considered as not in the public [illegible] to be huckstered off to whomsoever will pay most or who may have paid most in political services. [illegible] of the country ought to belong to the honest [illegible] men of the country. The Indian department has been, almost from the day of its organization, a huge swindling machine, manipulated by whatever [illegible] might be, for the time, in power. It is no worse now than it was twenty or ten years ago; perhaps not so bad; but the reform [illegible] can never be [illegible] but by a radical reorganization of the whole system. The [illegible] employment of military officers who would be otherwise idle, is the beginning of the reform; at [illegible], we may reasonably so hope.

4TH OF JULY.—The Committee of Arrangements on the 4th of July celebration met at the Council Chamber last evening and received the reports and estimates of the several sub-committees. Everything was encouraging and satisfactory.

Messrs. L. P. W. Quimby and Wm. McMellin were added to the Committee on Grounds.

[illegible] Quimby, Zeiber and Hodge were appointed a [illegible] on Carriages.

[illegible] Richardson, Weed and Moffit were appointed a [illegible] to expend the funds appropriated for the relief of the invited companies and military.

Hon. M. P. Deady, W. W. Upton, Henry Failing, S. J. McCormick, D. Frederich and W. S. Ladd were appointed a Committee on reception of invited guests.

HAMILTON BOYD, Chairman.

J. F. McCoy, Secretary.

[illegible] IMAGINATION.—The editor of the Yamhill paper has a lively imagination, as the following from the last issue of that paper will show: "Last week we offered [illegible] of the Herald a manly contest, but our [illegible] being too heavy for him, like a brindle cur or a [illegible] he turned his tail, ran out of the [illegible] the barn floor, crawled out of the other [illegible] the grass under the fence corner and snapped at our friend Bean's heel. But his teeth are soft [illegible] not so much as leave an imprint on Bean's boot." [illegible] of the writer of this phillipic is about as [illegible] as a "[illegible] legged phiste" full of fleas. This relic of [illegible] to be taken in a Pickwickian sense, [illegible] have no desire to divert the "heavy a[illegible] of our friend Jasper."

ELKO.—The "gentleman from Grant" has been heard from. The Commercial furnishes the following [illegible] from a letter written by Col. Tom Gray from Elko, May 31st: "I am here in White Pine [illegible] am hunting up my mining interests. I find [illegible] some very valuable property in this section, provided it is not forfeited by the mining laws. I think [illegible] what I can learn that my title will hold good; if [illegible] I will come out all right. This place is on the railroad, [illegible] miles from Treasure Hill, and is the county seat [illegible]. There is a large quantity of "real" [illegible] in the vicinity, and they are constantly [illegible]. We have coal, copper, gold and [illegible] is high, but healthy. There are five [illegible] of stages running from here to White Pine, [illegible] to 25 cents, on account of opposition."

QUICK TRIP.—The schooner Alaska, [illegible], arrived yesterday morning from [illegible], having [illegible] the round trip from this port in [illegible] short period of sixty days. She sailed from [illegible] on the 15th May; had fair weather and south[illegible] till off the Columbia, which she reached on [illegible] inst., sailed up the Columbia to the mouth of [illegible] from which place she was towed up by the [illegible]. She brings to Allen & Lewis 1,721 kegs [illegible], Barrell & Co., 40 kegs sugar and 25 bags [illegible] McCraken, Merrill & Co., 390 bags Kona [illegible] 20 bales pulu and 162 bags sugar.

[illegible].—The quarterly examination at [illegible] school, yesterday, was attended by a [illegible] of the patrons and others interested in education. The exercises were quite interesting [illegible] of very young pupils, surprising. The [illegible] shown by the little ones in penmanship, [illegible] and geography, was very satisfactory [illegible] and friends. The number of pupils is [illegible] forty, beyond which the managers will not receive [illegible] the popularity of Miss Phillips as a teacher [illegible] that the applications each term number almost as [illegible]

[illegible] MOVEMENTS.—The Democratic convention for [illegible] of candidates to be defeated at the election on the 20th inst., will be held at the Council Chamber [illegible] of the 14th. It will consist of twenty-[illegible] from the several wards, in the following [illegible]: First ward, 9; Second ward, 9; Third ward, 7. The ward meetings for the election of delegates [illegible] of ward candidates, will be held on [illegible] the 12th inst. We get this information from the Commercial, and publish it for the benefit [illegible] it may concern, without vouching for the correctness of any of the particulars.

[illegible] FOR THE CELEBRATION.—One of the sub-[illegible] has raised and deposited in the Bank [illegible]. Another deposited yesterday $1,089, making a total of $[illegible],312. Nearly $1,200 is yet wanted. Judging [illegible] of the committees within the last few [illegible], they will soon obtain the required amount. But [illegible] houses ought to come out a little more [illegible]. The committees have worked zealously and ably [illegible], gathering in the subscriptions, in most [illegible] in "mites."

[illegible] Judge Deady arrived home yesterday [illegible] from his trip to Southern Oregon. He experienced [illegible] days of exceedingly hot weather, and is [illegible] bronzed from exposure, though in excellent [illegible]

[illegible] and "a Mr. Hayden" arrived from Walla Walla last evening, where they had been speechifying [illegible] the "packers."

Hon. Elwood Evans, of Washington Territory, also arrived [illegible] from Walla Walla.

PROBATE COURT.—The following probate b[illegible] was [illegible] in the County Court yesterday:

Levi Anderson, administrator of the estate of F. C. [illegible] filed his final report.

W. S. Ladd and Levi Anderson filed petition for distribution of the Raleigh estate.

J. F. O. Lownsdale filed his final account as administrator of the estate of Daniel H. Lownsdale. Order of [illegible]

[illegible] AND EDITORS' CONVENTION.—In connection [illegible] a proposition which is going around, to hold a convention of publishers and editors some time during the [illegible], the McMinnville Courier suggests the [illegible] day of the State Fair, at 4 P. M., as the time, [illegible] Unionist office, the place. The Unionist says [illegible] "We are willing and more." What say the [illegible]?

[illegible] SUGGESTION.—We hope the Committee on [illegible] of the Day and "His Honor, H. Boyd, Mayor," [illegible] us for making another suggestion. Not to [illegible] too fine a point upon it, we wish to suggest that, as [illegible] additional to the Great Eccentric and the [illegible] Horse, they reorganize the ancient and honorable [illegible] of Honorificabilitudanitatibusques, to serve as a [illegible] to the distinguished orator of the day.

M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—This was a [illegible] affair in every respect. The Church was filled with a delighted audience; the exercises went off [illegible] entire satisfaction of all concerned, and the receipts [illegible] amounting, clear of expenses, to $125 00 [illegible] scene is spoken of as being a beautiful per[illegible]

[illegible] AT SEA.—On board the steamship George S. [illegible], by Captain Henry Langdon, in latitude 47 30 [illegible] longitude 124:30 west, at six o'clock P. M., [illegible] day, June 9th, 1869, off Point Greenville, Mr. David C. Hatch to Miss J. Miller, daughter of Captain S. E. Miller, all of Oregon City, State of Oregon, United States of America.

SALEM—THE CELEBRATION.—The Unionist of yesterday says: "We learn from the Committee on [illegible] that [illegible] they succeed better within a few days [illegible] they have done, it will be impossible to have a celebration [illegible] of such proportions as was at first designed. [illegible] tee have thus far raised only about $550. It will at least require $1,000."

MUSIC AND ART GALLERY.—This institution is getting [illegible], more beautiful every day under the management of Messrs. Hillman & Tileston, who have added [illegible] to the stock of musical instruments, pictures and other articles of beauty and utility. The establishment [illegible] become a credit to the city.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—We learn that preparations [illegible] among the pupils of the M. E. Church [illegible] School, to give a strawberry festival at the Washington Guards' Armory some evening during next week, [illegible] to be added to the organ fund.

[illegible] ARRIVED.—The commission of Hon. Wilson [illegible], as Collector of Internal Revenue, has been received. He will doubtless assume his office early next week.

[illegible] EXAMINATION CONTINUED.—The preliminary examination of the Fletchers was still going on at Vancouver yesterday. It was thought it would be concluded last FIFTY PER CENT TO BE ADDED.—The strength of our 4th of July choir is to be one hundred and fifty voices, instead of the modest figure one hundred, as we had it yesterday morning.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS' COURT.—This court will meet at 10 o'clock A. M. to-day, to audit claims against the county.

A DISCOVERY.—The philosopher of the Evening Commercial has discovered that "casting stones at the moon" is a "feminine weakness."

How We Feed England

Commissioner Capron of the Agricultural Department presents in his last report some interesting facts relative to the amount of breadstuff furnished England by this country He says that the wheat deficit of Great Britain, always comparatively large, was less than usual in 1868, and the imports were consequently reduced from 34,645,569 cwts in 1867 to 32,639,768 cwts., 60,927,566 bushels. This country has advanced its position to the second place, displacing Prussia. Russia still occupying the first in supplying the bread deficiency. The United States sent 5,908,149 cwts., or 11,028,541 bushels This is quite as much as could be expected in the present condition of production, more than the future will probably average, and more perhaps than is desirable to send abroad, as we can never expect to gain anything but the impoverishment of lands and the dwarfing of national industries by exporting cereals or other bulky products of agriculture This export, respectable as it is, is but 18 per cent of the receipts of Great Britain from foreign sources

In addition to the wheat, the amount of flour imported was, 3,093,022 cwts, which is a slight decrease. Of this the United States sent 676,192 cwts., or 386,395 barrels, equivalent to 1,931,975 bushels, which added to the unmanufactured grain would swell our wheat exports to 12,960,570 bushels.

FLIRTATION.—It takes two to make a flirtation, it must be remembered; and the ordinary practice of society—to blame the girl whenever a flirtation-copartnership is broken up—constantly produces cases of great hardship. Why must it necessarily be the girl that is in the wrong? At present, flirtation is accepted as a fashionable amusement. It is far more interesting than bezique, it is not limited by conditions of time and place, like croquet; and it has just that spice of danger which heightens one's enjoyment of any pastime. When two charming young creatures begin to flirt with each other, don't they know perfectly what they are about? Falling seriously in love is quite another matter, and is known by its very different symptoms. There is a fine, airy, theatrical appearance about a flirtation which the more solemn business of love-making invariably lacks. A true lover fears to mention his mistress' name. He is half afraid lest his secret should be known to herself. He is silent. He is moody, and given to long and vacant staring at the table-cover or carpet. He secretly watches the too-sweet face which has enthralled him; and he has a terrible inward qualm when her eye catches his. He is miserable when he is beside her; he is unutterably wretched when he is away from her. The stars are his confidants; he abhors the faces of men, and turns away in disgust from the smoking-room of his club. But the man who is only carrying on flirtation is a very different creature. He plays at making love in a serio-comic manner which is meant to be amusing. He is great in the matter of compliments; he is easy in manner, jocular, and occasionally witty (with such brains as Providence has given him) even witty. With him the tragedy of love-making is turned into a clever burlesque, with plenty of light, brilliant dresses, good music and merriment. —"Flirts and Flirtation," in Temple Bar.

OVERWORK.—There was William Pitt dead at 49, carrying the British Empire on his shoulders for a quarter of a century, and attempting to carry a pint of port wine daily and a pinch of opium in his stomach, and foundering in mid ocean from this over cargo. What a wreck was that when Brinsley Sheridan went to pieces on the breakers of intemperance and overwork! There, too, was Mirabeau, that prodigy of strength and health, of versatility and splendid talent, killed by overwhelming labors and excitement of the tribune and the orgies of Cyprian hells. Sergeant S. Prentiss attempted the double task; and if ever a man might with impunity, he could, with leonine health and marvelous mental gifts. Said a distinguished Mississippi lawyer to me, "Pentiss would sit up all night gambling and drinking, and then go into court next day and make a better plea in all respects than I could, or any body else at the bar of our State, even though we study our case half the night and slept the rest." He tried it, and in the trying burned to the socket in 41 years the lamp of life that had been trimmed to last four score. A draft upon the constitution in behalf of appetite is just as much a draft as in behalf of work; and if both are habitually preferred together, bankruptcy and ruin are sure and swift.—From Using Strength with Economy, in Lippincott's Magazine for June.

VALUABLE TESTIMONY.—The following recommendation comes from a source of such well known and indisputable character, that it requires no comment beyond its publication:

I have given 'Kane's Imperial Condensed Soap' a thorough and impartial trial, and am satisfied it will do all that is claimed for it. I washed three dozen white shirts, using half a bar of soap. It did its work well, requiring no rubbing, and I cheerfully recommend it as the best Washing Compound I ever used.

VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Good Advice for Workingmen

George Francis Train can talk sense when tries. In one of his recent discourses at n Francisco he took occasion to advise s auditors, and especially Irish-American tizens, to cease their opposition to Chinese bor and try to turn the humble industry of at people to their own account. "Why," id he, "are you so hostile to the poor China-an? Why not suffer him to do menial la-or and let white workmen go up higher? Why don't you employ him yourself to do e drudgery? There is room for all; there work enough to be done for a hundred ears."

The San Francisco Monitor, a Democratic ournal, commends these sensible remarks. t is gratifying to know that there is occaionally a journal of that party which has andor enough to meet this question in a roper spirit. There is more good sense and ound philosophy in the above brief extracts rom Mr. Train's speech than all the anti-Chinese papers in Oregon ever uttered on this subject. For the more they say about it, the more absurd and silly do they become. Train's words set forth the true philosophy for the workingmen. The Chinaman was never in the way of any white man who wants to work. And he is a very poor specimen of the "superior race" who, instead of going to work like a man and establishing himself in comfort and prosperity, spends his time in whining about Chinese competition and complaining that this humble people are in the way of his advancement.

We fear that if Train talks as good sense in this city as he uttered in his remarks to his Irish auditors at San Francisco, he will incur the violent displeasure of the Herald and a majority of our present City Council.

Latest from Washington Territory.

We collect the table of majorities in Washington Territory, received up to the closing of the telegraph office last evening:

Garfielde.		Moore.
[illegible]	57	Clallam	6
Cowlitz	9	Island	11
Jefferson	186	Pierce	20
King	9	Skamania	55
[illegible]	172	Wahkiakum	6
[illegible]	5	Whatcom	26
Thurston	49	Walla Walla	406
Klickitat	41		530
[illegible]	23
[illegible]	25

Garfielde's majority so far, 75.

The counties yet to hear from are Pacific, which gave 107 Republican majority in the last election, and Stevens, Yakima and Mason, which gave in the same election 84 Democratic majority. Pacific ought now at least to offset the three small Democratic counties [illegible]. We think therefore that Garfielde is elected by at least 50 majority, notwithstanding the tremendous Democratic coup at Walla Walla.

IMPRACTICABLE IDEAS.—The New England Reform League which set up in business a short time ago with absolute free trade as a basis, has been tacking on one hobby after another and at last has demanded that the "reform" idea shall be carried to the extent of preventing the taking of interest on money. Now it may be supposed that when the millenium comes and all men do just what is right, no one will either require or pay interest on money, but it is difficult to see how that condition can come about much before that time. As long as the principle of "every man for himself" obtains in the business world, men will be apt to require of other men interest for the use of their commodities, money included; and this principle of individualism is very apt to last a good while in a Government like ours. Some [illegible] that this anti-interest idea [illegible] coupled with the free trade idea. But it need not seem at all surprising. There is an [illegible] between the two [illegible]. Both are theoretically beautiful and Christian-like, and both are practically vicious and dangerous to the present structure of society and the consequent welfare of its members. They are both based on the assumption that human nature and social organization are more perfect than they are, and hence they fall to the ground before the logic of facts.

In General.

The reports from the Sound improve continually. They have set out over there to [illegible] Walla Walla, and they mean to do it. "The band is still playing."

The Yamhill Courier in its last issue is after the Herald more sharply than ever. It says: "The Herald claims to be a Democratic organ, while promulgating doctrines that it must know, (if possessed of any common sense,) would kill any party that dare make such professions."

A colored postmaster in the heart of Georgia right among the chivalry is a fact which illustrates the progress of the colored race. Think of Toombs, instead of call the roll of his slaves in the shadow of Bunker Hill monument, only calling for his letters from Henry M. Turner, Postmaster at Macon, Georgia!

The Philadelphia Press says that the whole secret of Secretary Boutwell's administration is to collect as much revenue and pay as much debt as possible. This, certainly, is a simple and direct method, and its result is seen in the decrease of the debt every month. It matters not what any one may say against Boutwell's policy, so long as it continues to bring such substantial results the people will be satisfied.

The Honolulu Advertiser strongly expresses the hope that the treaty between the Hawaiian Government and the United States will yet be ratified by our Senate, and suggests "as the most effective means now left to aid its passage at the next session, an autograph letter from His Majesty to President Grant, congratulating him on his accession to the Presidency, and urging its ratification as a measure calculated to impart new energy and life to our country. There could be no harm, and much good from such a royal missal."

A majority of 406 is claimed for Moore in Walla Walla county, and the official figures will probably show about that result. This is a most extraordinary majority, and it is perfectly certain that it will not bear examination. Its magnitude surprised all except the managers who set it up for that figure. The Republicans of Walla Walla, however, did their duty like men, and though the whole country was flooded with letters and documents written by the Federal officials on the Sound for the purpose of creating disaffection among the Republicans and securing a Democratic triumph, no Republican at Walla Walla failed to come up to the work. There are several rods in pickle for these officials. It is proper to notify them that they will hear from Oregon again

It will grieve the heart of the whole nation to learn that Alexander H Stephens, late Vice President, C. S. A, is in tribulation about the fate of the Republic. In his opinion our beloved country is rapidly drifting toward a despotism. He and his compatriots tried to save it by secession, but failed, and now it is running at a frightful rate straight to destruction. It is to be hoped that the Northern Democracy will respond to the "Vice President's" call and make one more effort in behalf of our beloved land.

The newspaper organ of the Friends' Society deprecates the idea of the Friends taking charge of the Indians. It is too heavy a responsibility, it is said, and failure will work an injury to the Society. The Quakers will certainly find that when they get among the Indians they will have something to do. The Indians of Kansas have cut the hoes which were furnished them by the Interior Department into arrow heads and have gone out on a summer campaign as usual. They will be back in time to go on reservations and obtain quarters and provisions for the winter at the expense of the Government. But until the annual "peace" comes with the snows of next winter, the Quaker agents will have enough to do to keep their own hair on.

Condition of Our State.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

A short residence in your State has convinced my mind of some facts which I propose to embody in as concise a manner as possible, and thereby secure attention to them for the benefit of your readers, both in and out of the State.

With a climate and soil unsurpassed for salubrity and productiveness—with bodies of timber, comprising some dozen varieties, of almost unlimited extent; with fine rivers, upon whose waters the largest ocean steamers run inland over one hundred miles; with a capacity almost limitless for the raising, cultivation and production of stock, fruits, grain, butter, cheese, bacon, lard, eggs, fish, lumber and iron, and a water power greater perhaps than any other State in the Union, Oregon should take the van of the Pacific States—indeed, be but little behind in many important particulars any of the Eastern States. To give a few of the reasons why she is not is the object of this article.

In the first place, the ease with which the soil yields its productions seems to invite the opposite of the spirit of thrift which characterises the people of far less favored regions; it requiring comparatively little effort to raise crops or stock.

Then, too, while you can produce that which will always command a ready market, the policy pursued by the farmer, of rushing into the thing paying best at present, causes a most vexatious fluctuation in values when uniformity would otherwise exist. A few years since, stock was far below a remunerative figure, and wheat was high; then instead of continuing to raise stock, many quit it, and wheat became the chief item of production; behold the result. To-day wheat is bearing only a nominal value, while stock is far above what it has brought for years past. It reminds one of a lot of landsmen in a small vessel at sea, rushing from side to side to trim her, until sinking is the result.

A little thought, a provident forecast, would have prevented much of this.

Another, and perhaps the one involving the most culpability, is the want of manufacturing enterprises on the one hand; and an indifference to encouraging such as already exist on the other.

A few instances: With unlimited dairy privileges, far surpassing those of most countries, both butter and cheese are imported in considerable quantities. These articles might be produced not only for home consumption but largely for export. Why not? Until three years since, I am informed, bacon was an article of import from the Atlantic States. A gentleman informed me to-day that he saw dried apples from the East in an up-country store. This would seem to be "taking coals to Newcastle." With the finest timber in the world, we bring our broom handles from San Francisco.

Mountains of rich iron ore suggest the importance of a rolling mill. With several (five or six, I understand) woolen mills, some of our merchants still import fabrics no better than those produced in these mills, while quite a surplus of these seek a market in San Francisco. Why?

A good quality, and I presume enough to supply the market of soap, is made here, certainly could be, and yet San Francisco is sought for this article also.

The above are a few cases—perhaps a hundred might be mentioned, among which are leather, boots and shoes, etc.

So far as California, however, is concerned, being so large a consumer of our productions, we can better afford to patronize her than the East, whose [illegible] cries "Give, give," and yet [illegible] does not satisfy her. The lacteal fluid from her mother breast flows only in response to golden and silver nuggets!

To a great extent the interest of the entire Pacific coast is reciprocal, and to build up her cities, populate her broad productive acres, encourage her industries and develop her mighty resources, should be the pride, as it is the duty of every citizen to do. Oregon has a population of about one hundred thousand—it is capable of giving homes and competence to five millions, and Washington Territory to as many more, perhaps. Of this, however, I am not so well advised.

What we want, as you said in a recent issue, is enterprise and capital. I would add, a large addition to our present population.

As I am informed, many of the old settlers seem incapable of moving out of a certain groove. They need the impulse perhaps that a largely increased population of the more thrifty sort would afford them.

The timbering and fishing interests of Oregon and Washington are receiving, as they merit, a large share of attention; both are destined to give our coast a distinctive character, and become sources of immense revenue to their commonwealths.

What shall be said of the fruit yield? I acknowledge any description of mine inadequate, and yet I have seen but little. With thorough cultivation I am convinced that Oregon will as far surpass other States in the growth of apples, plums, cherries, straw, black and raspberries and perhaps some other varieties, as California surpasses all others for grapes and peaches. These last can be sufficiently grown for house consumption, but no more. I notice, however, that some—many—orchards are ruining for want of proper culture. This invites insects and decay. All orchards should be thoroughly plowed and pruned once a year. The plowing cannot be too deep.

Too little attention is paid to butter making, much of it will scarcely keep till brought to market, and is hardly at all fit for table use. This ought not so to be, when it is just as easy to make it good, and add at least one-fourth or fifth to its value.

If made to keep, it would always bring a much larger price for winter consumption, but this not being the case, it is forced upon the market and sold for what it will bring.

The above facts, many of them are, it seems to me, of sufficient importance to have public attention often called to them with a view of "mending our ways" and thereby adding to the happiness, as it will add to the wealth of the country.

Another, and the last item is, we ought to stop draining our coast of its gold and silver for life and fire insurance. We are losing incalculably from this cause. To it the present stringency is due more than to any other cause, or all others, and yet to keep up the policies now in force will require near three million dollars annually and it is estimated I believe more than double this amount for fire insurance. Estimates on the sum which will have gone East by the end of the present year approximate ten million dollars, the interest on which as an absolute loss to the coast in a single decade amounts to over twenty five million dollars, calculated at a less rate than it will likely be worth to us during that time. To the country in which it is employed, capital is always worth more than its nominal value. This seems to me a self evident proposition.

Return the money to Oregon gone out of it for insurance, and at once they would be instinct with life and animation. Continue to send it away, and like a patient whose life blood is slowly ebbing out, our industries languish, our stores and shops one by one close and the shrill whistle of the steamboats plying on our rivers will be heard less frequent, and thus reminding us of a past history replete with suicidal folly.

These are subjects of the gravest concern to us, well worthy the consideration of the political economist.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Arizona News.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Delegate McCormick, of Arizona, laid before General Sherman and Secretary Rawlings a full statement of the recent Indian outrages in Arizona and the losses suffered by the citizens. He made a fresh appeal for more troops, and the matter has been referred to Gen. Thomas, commanding the Pacific Division. Gen. Sherman has favorably endorsed the memorial of the Legislature of Arizona, requesting that arms and rations be issued to citizens where they can efficiently co-operate with the troops against hostile Indians.

Grant and family, accompanied by Consul Cramer and wife, left Washington to-night for New York.

Alabama Politics.

MONTGOMERY, June 10.—The Democratic Convention at Troy, yesterday, nominated Mr. A. N. Worthy, of Pike county, for Congress in the Second District. His disabilities have been removed by act of Congress. The Republicans met in this city yesterday and nominated C. N. Buckley as their candidate. The Republican caucus to nominate for the Third District met at Opedike yesterday. There is a split in the Convention. A special dispatch says that up to 4 o'clock this afternoon no nomination had been effected, and that a break is imminent. The fight is against Norris, late incumbent.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Major Thompson has been detailed by order of Gen. Canby for temporary duty as sheriff of Richmond, relieving Major Elkin.

The negroes here are still in such a state of excitement that the usual congratulatory meeting after an election, is further postponed. The majority are as well behaved as ever, but some of the worthless sort seem bent on a saturnalia of lawlessness. A gang of these, prowling around last night, were captured by the police and to-day sent to jail by the colored police justices.

The Iowa Republican Convention meets at Desmoines to-day. Governor Merrill will undoubtedly be nominated as Governor. There are several aspirants for Lieutenant Governor.

Miscellaneous.

CHICAGO, June 10.—A Times special says Forney's Chronicle denies the report that the Pennsylvania Republicans intend to make the Alabama question or the annexation of Canada a party issue. It says it knows of no Republican politician who intends making such an issue.

The National Division of the Sons of Temperance passed resolutions asking Congress to pass a prohibitory law for the District of Columbia and impose a heavy penalty for its violation.

TRENTON, N. J., June 10.—The celebrated Harrison and Vreel case, which originated in a suit brought in the Hudson Circuit Court last January by Mrs. Harrison, a widow 45 years of age, against George Vreel, a wealthy lover of 83, for breach of promise, is now being argued in the Supreme Court on a motion of the defendant for a new trial.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The large stove manufactory of Munsell & Co, at Elizabethtown, N. J., fell in yesterday, carrying all the stoves and material of the building into the basement, and destroying a considerable amount of property. Fortunately none of the employees, numbering some hundreds, were in the building when the accident occurred.

A. L. Steadman, a wealthy gentleman stopping at the Brevoort House with Sir J. Barrington, ex-Mayor of London, has disappeared suddenly. It is feared he has been foully dealt with.

CINCINNATI, June 10.—Yesterday evening there was a fierce tornado at Miamiburg, Montgomery county. One bridge over the Great Miami was destroyed. Another was partially unroofed. Fences and chimneys were blown down. A house was unroofed at the depot and rocked so as to stop the clock. The path of the tornado was narrow. It did not touch elsewhere in the vicinity.

A son of John Cushp, of Dayton, aged about 13 years, was instantly killed, yesterday, in that town, by a stone thrown from a sling in the hands of another boy.

Wm. Dodge, Mayor of Sitka, and the Russian Consul at Alaska, are here on a short visit where he formerly lived. He leaves to-day for Alaska via San Francisco.

The Treasury Department has received several applications from the National Banks for the withdrawal of their bonds on file as security for Government deposits. They say they derive no benefit as depositaries, and prefer using the bonds that are now locked up in the Treasury.

CHICAGO, June 10.—The National Christian Anti Secret Society Convention is still in session. The speeches yesterday were characterised by still more vehement denunciation against secret societies, especially Masons. Senator Pomeroy addressed the meeting in the evening. He intimated that Robinson was acquitted of the murder of McConnell because he was a Mason.

Hon. W. H. Seward arrived in Chicago last night. He intends going to San Francisco and thence to Sitka.

Dispatches from Central Illinois say late rains have destroyed the last hope for the corn crop, most of the corn planted having rotted in the ground. It rained all day yesterday. However, the prevalent opinion expressed is, that it is not too late to replant.

Cuban News.

HAVANA, June 10.—The fact is now established beyond doubt that the filibusters who landed in the bay of Nipe have effected a junction with the forces of Quesada.

The troops have had several skirmishes with the insurgents near Trinidad recently.

Havana is quiet.

The sugar market is heavy. Sales were made to-day on the basis of 8¼@8¾.

NEW YORK, June 10.—The Herald's special from Havana on the 7th, via Key West, on the 9th, says the emigration of Cubans from the Island has again commenced. Large numbers are leaving. A commission of volunteers met yesterday, but adjourned without taking action.

It is reported that Minister Roberts has telegraphed from Washington to the authorities at Havana, warning them of their precarious condition.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, June 10.—The Archbishop of Canterbury has counseled the Bishops in the House of Lords not to oppose the Irish Church bill.

A banquet was given to-night to deputations from Ireland now in this city bearing petitions against the Irish Church bill. Many tory peers and clergymen of the Established Church were present.

It is said that fifteen Conservative peers will decline to follow the policy of rejection endorsed by a majority at their meeting last Saturday and the defection of others is probable.

The Postoffice department has completed arrangements for the purchase of the lines of telegraph in the United Kingdom, in accordance with the bill passed by the Parliament last year.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

Deadheads on the Railroad.

SUMMIT, June 10.—Summit of the Sierra Nevada, one hundred and five miles from Sacramento. Simonton says Pullman's palace train arrived here at half past three this afternoon, having run from Promontory Point over the Central Pacific at a speed of thirty five to fifty miles, hourly, on the levels and twenty-five to thirty-five on the ascending grades. The road is generally in good condition, and thousands of workmen daily improving it by leveling up the track where slightly settled by heavy rains. There is no reasonable ground for the Eastern stories of danger from any source on the entire line across the continent. The fifty miles of really rough road on the Union Pacific, east of the Wasatch, is rapidly being perfected. Meantime it is running slowly and cautiously. A month hence the time between New York and San Francisco should be made in six days.

THE JOURNALIST.—The New York Express, alluding to the death of Mr. Seymour, of the Times, says: "Journalists seldom perish from long illness. They generally pass away without having had time to sacrifice upon a bed of tedious illness. They wear to the last, dying while in the harness without being aware of it. Probably no slave pen was ever more to be feared than the pen of the journalist who has the capacity for hard and rapid work, and the courage to do that work without cessation. Yet people deny him the honor of being a workingman."

The popular idea of a journalist is somewhat thus: A man who lazily writes from day to day, and at night goes to the circus or theatre on a free pass. A jolly lounger with nothing to do but be happy. We should like to test some of these airy critics with a week's honest work. Memphis Avalanche.

A teamster in Maine says he can start the most balky horse by taking him out of the shafts and making him go around in a narrow circle till he is giddy. If the first dance of this sort does not cure him the second will.

A dry fertilizer is wholly inoperative; the most active of all stimulants to plant growth is liquid manure.

Another View of It.

Our readers are generally aware of the means lately adopted by the Democratic members of the Indiana Legislature to defeat the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment by that body. There was a Republican majority in each House, but when the ratification resolution came up the entire Democratic delegation, in both the Senate and House of Representatives, resigned, and this act was construed by the resigning members as disqualifying the Legislature for legal business, because the Constitution of Indiana provides that two thirds of each House shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for legislation. If, therefore, they could leave both Houses without a quorum, the amendment, they thought, was defeated. Some Republican journals coincided in this view, and have expressed the opinion that the ratification which followed by the Republican majority of each house, is null and void. The Chicago Tribune undertakes, on different grounds from those adopted by the Governor and Legislature of Indiana, to confute this position. The Tribune says the constitutional provision does not require "two thirds of the members elected, or whose election was provided for, as a quorum," but simply (as that instrument expresses it), "two thirds of each House," and it holds that when a member of either House resigns he can no longer be accounted a part of the Legislature, though his resignation does not affect the legality of the Legislature so long as a majority of both Houses remain ready to transact business. The constitutional two thirds would from this appear to mean only two thirds of the members who have not resigned or died or become otherwise disqualified to discharge the duties of legislators. The Tribune backs up this position by precedent which cannot be lightly regarded. It refers to the action of Congress under a similar clause in the National Constitution, which action has been sanctioned by the other branches of the Government and by all the Courts in the country. Says the Tribune:

"The Constitution of the United States provides that 'Congress, whenever two thirds of both Houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to the Constitution.' Here is the same expression, 'two thirds of a House.' How has it been construed? In proposing an amendment to the Constitution it is only necessary that two thirds of both Houses of Congress shall deem it necessary, i. e., shall vote for it. With secession, the Senators from nine States resigned. This left, indeed, six Senators more than two-thirds of the whole number authorized by the Constitution. But there were always more than six Democratic Senators, who, as such, voted against the submission of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Constitutional Amendments. The vote in the United States Senate on the Fourteenth Constitutional Amendment, for instance, was 33 ayes to 11 noes, in a body, in which, under the Constitution, 72 members were provided for. Now, if the two thirds of the Senate who must 'deem it necessary,' i. e., vote for the submission of a Constitutional Amendment, means two-thirds of the number whose election is authorized, including resigned members as well as those still in office, then the passage of the Fourteenth Amendment would have required the votes of 48 members for it, whereas only forty four votes were cast on the question at all, and of these only 33 votes were for it."

This action of the Senate of the United States, it is held, would be null and void upon the same theory by which the Democrats regard as null and void the late action of the Republican members of the Indiana Legislature. But that theory has been universally repudiated, and the one assumed by the Tribune universally accepted by all departments of the Governments and even by President Johnson himself. "If, therefore," says the Tribune, "the vote of the Indiana Legislature is not in accordance with the Constitution of Indiana, then the vote in either house of Congress, whereby the Fifteenth Amendment has been submitted to the Legislatures of the various States, is not in accordance with the National Constitution;" and if the vote in Congress submitting the amendment is lawful, that of the Indiana Legislature ratifying it can be no less lawful and binding.—Sacramento Union.

HOW EDWARD III. RAISED SUPPLIES.—As one of the means of raising money for his heavy expenses, Edward had obtained permission to buy 20,000 sacks of wool. This somewhat singular arrangement brings to light one of the ways in which the King obtained his supplies, and a most cumbrous and mischievous way it was. The wool itself was not granted to him, but only the right to buy it, (which was, in effect, a right to pre-emption,) and the profit he could make by selling it was the amount of subsidy he received. He thus became a merchant on his own account, and interfered, considerably, with all the regular course of trade. He allowed no wool to be bought or sold until he had obtained his 20,000 sacks, and he impressed ships, to the great inconvenience of their owners and the merchants in general, to carry the wool to Brabant, where he intended to sell it. These ships were kept waiting for the wool, in the Thames and other places, the whole summer and autumn, and it is no wonder that later in the reign, when political intrigues had increased political liberty, such practices should have been deprecated. But there was still another difficulty and complication in the transaction. The King could not, of course, buy and sell in his own person, and he therefore employed ninety-six merchants to do so for him. They were to advance the King the sum of £200,000. As security for this payment, he assigned to them all the custom duties throughout the kingdom; as remuneration for their trouble, he granted to them one-half of the profit on the transaction. The sellers received tallies on delivery of the wool, and the "obligatory letters of payment" were made out in the King's name. The merchants, therefore, had but little risk, and acted only as middlemen; and, inasmuch as they, who were to a large extent able to dictate to the owners what should be the price of the wool, gave only £3 a sack for it and sold it for £20, they must have been exorbitantly paid for their trouble; while the King, or rather the kingdom, did not ultimately realise any adequate amount from this very circuitous and costly mode of what was in reality arbitrary taxation.—Longman's Life and Times of Edward III.

TWO PROBLEMS—WHAT ARE THE ANSWERS?—A man bought a pound of copper for twenty-seven cents. Two per. cent. was lost in moulding, and he then sold the balance, gaining forty-seven per cent. on the original cost. At what price per pound did he sell it?

If six cats catch six rats in six minutes, how many cats will it take to catch one hundred rats in one hundred minutes?

Fattening sheep are the best and cheapest fertilizers. Our farmers know what is meant by the wool business, but they have yet to learn the profit there may be from mutton.

FIXED AMMUNITION.
"IMPROVED HENRY PATENT."
MANUFACTURED BY THE WINCHESTER REPEATING ARMS COMPANY.

THE ABOVE COMPANY HAVE PURCHASED THE Celebrated "Henry Patent," and greatly improved on the same, are now making a vastly superior arm, which excels all others for power, accuracy, convenience and rapidity of loading and firing. The Infantry Rifle, with Bayonet, is the most perfect and beautiful military arm ever produced, and the Sporting Rifle and Carbine are unequaled. These splendid weapons will deliver at the rate of TWO SHOTS A SECOND.

The Carbines carry thirteen shots in the magazine and one in the barrel, and the Rifle seventeen shots in the magazine and one in the barrel, or eighteen shots, all of which can be fired with precision by an expert, in nine seconds. Another great advantage these Rifles have over all others is that they can be loaded and fired as SINGLE BREACH LOADERS, at the rate of twenty shots per minute, and at the same time retain in the magazine sixteen shots in reserve. The above company are also giving special attention to the manufacture of FIXED AMMUNITION, and their CARTRIDGES are justly celebrated for their superior quality. None are genuine except those having "Flat Point" bullets, and the letter H raised on the head of the copper shell. The undersigned now offer to the trade a full assortment of the ARMS and AMMUNITION manufactured by "The Winchester Arms Company," and on terms more advantageous than they can be imported.

BLACKSMITH'S AND CARPENTER'S [illegible] sale by H W [illegible] & CO.

Sing Away Your Grief

We can sing away our cares easier than we can reason them away. Sing in the morning. The birds are the earliest to sing, the birds [illegible] now of. Sing in the evening. Singing is the last thing that robins do. When they have done their daily work, when they have flown their last flight and picked up their last morsel of food and cleansed their bill on a napkin of a bough, then on a top-twig they sing one song of praise. I know they sleep sweeter for it. They dream music, for sometimes in the night they break forth in singing, and stop suddenly after the first note startled by their own voice. Oh! that we might sing evening and morning, and let song touch song all the way through. As I was returning from the country the other evening between six and seven o'clock, bearing a basket of flowers, I met a man that was apparently the tender of a mason. He looked brick and mortar all over. He had worked the entire day and he had the appearance of a man that would not be afraid of work. He was walking on with light step, and singing to himself as he passed down the street, though he had been working the whole day, and nearly the whole week. Were it not that my good thoughts always come too late, I should have given him a large allotment of my flowers. If he had not been out of sight when the idea occurred to me, I should have hailed him and said, "Have you worked all day?" "Of course I have," he would have said. "Are you singing?" "Of course I am." "Then take the flowers home and give them to your wife, and tell her what a blessing she has in you!"

Oh! that we could put songs under our burdens. Oh! that we could extract the sense of sorrow by song. Then these things would not poison so much. Sing in the house. Teach your children to sing. When troubles come, go at them with songs. When griefs arise, sing them down. Lift the voice of praise against cares. Praise God by singing; that will lift you above trials of every sort. Attempt it. They sing in heaven, and among God's people upon earth is the appropriate language of Christian feeling.—Beecher.

Not to be Expected.—Governor Hoffman has refused to sign the bill passed by the New York Legislature to prevent fraudulent registration and fraudulent voting. The Tribune thereupon, handles the Governor in the following rough style:

This is consistent, at least. He was elected by the [illegible] and most [illegible] frauds devised and executed by his nearest friends and most trusted advisers—and he is not the man to go back on his friends. To prevent fraudulent registering and illegal voting [illegible] elected, and he cannot be expected to say that. He was deliberately miscounted into the Mayoralty in 1865, he was determinedly swindled into the Governorship in 1868; and [illegible] the bridge that carried him safely over. It is proverbially ill-mannered to be talking of ropes to one whose father was hung, and it must seem to the Governor impertinence, if not stupid insult, in a Legislature to [illegible] him a bill that strikes at the facilities for [illegible] voting. They could not reasonably have expected him to sign it.

The Willow Whistle.—Who does not love to make a willow whistle, or to see one made? [illegible] the cutting of the flexible bough, the choosing a smooth part, passing the knife round it, above and below, pounding it judiciously, wringing it earnestly, and feeling the hollow cylinder of bark at last slipping on the sappy, ivory-white, fragrant wood! That little plaything grew, with growth of art and civilization, to be the great organ which thunders at Harlem or in Boston. Respect the willow whistle.—O. W. Holmes.

Attention Democrats!—Thirty or forty Japanese families have come to California to settle and introduce tea culture, and readers of Democratic newspapers may begin to look for a grand fanfaronade about Japanese citizens! The "white man's government" has been invaded by another "inferior race" [illegible] of the Pacific! The "superior race," which is claimed to be sovereign because superior, has encountered a new and unexpected enemy, and is in danger of being [illegible] by a feeble, weak and inferior people! The grand captain of the Ku Klux Klan should immediately sound the alarm. These Japanese came to our country to introduce the [illegible] industrial pursuit of tea raising, [illegible], if successful, will add an annual product equal to our gold yield, but then the soil on which it is to grow is the "white man's" and our Democratic exclusiveness will not [illegible]. Democrats drink tea [illegible] Japan with soothing effect, but [illegible] even if the earth [illegible] Democ[illegible] California was not always a "[illegible] country." It is in a way to be [illegible] again. Sound the tocsin, and call out the Ku Klux.—[illegible] Appeal.

The town of Frederick, Maryland, from the [illegible] of which Barbara Fritchie sent [illegible] to Stonewall Jackson and his [illegible]. The local paper [illegible], says it was in pursuance of a determination of the city authorities to blot out the memory of the [illegible] woman. To this end they first [illegible] an ordinance to widen and straighten Carrol Creek near which the house was built, they then decided that the house was in the line of the proposed improvement, and the engineers in straightening the creek were compelled to make three sharp angles to conform to this decision. But the editor warns the [illegible] that the memory of Barbara Fritchie cannot be so easily destroyed. "The tuneful nine have it in care, and poetry and song shall waft it down to future ages, and men shall say that Whittier wrote when Barbara lived."

Dubuke has a precocious student of astronomy, who under examination gave the following [illegible] answer to the question "W[illegible] is the milky way?"—"The milky way is a collection of white clouds in the sky, called the trade winds, or the aurora borealis."

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession.

We the undersigned hereby certify that we have used Orton's Preparation for the purpose of destroying the appetite for Tobacco, and can assure those who are suffering from this habit that Orton's Preparation will certainly destroy the appetite for Tobacco, quickly and permanently and without injury to the health and without creating an appetite or use for the Preparation or any substitute.

From Samuel Cassidy, Editor Journal & Argus.

Petaluma, California, Dec. 14, 1866

For about twenty years I had used Tobacco in its various forms, and for the past eight years had been an inveterate smoker. Becoming satisfied that the excessive use of the article was seriously injuring my health, I determined if possible to break myself of the habit. Hearing of Orton's Preparation for destroying the appetite [illegible] I sent for a box of the medicine, which I received through the mail on the 17th of November. A month has not elapsed and yet the medicine has effectually relieved me from any craving or desire to use Tobacco in any form. The Preparation is not more difficult or unpleasant to take than to commence chewing gum. I conscientiously believe the Preparation will have the promised and desired effect in every instance where it is given a fair trial. Upon that belief and in my honest desire to assist those who wish to break away from the slavish appetite for Tobacco I offer this testimonial.

SAMUEL CASSIDY

Beware of Counterfeits and all articles purporting to be like this, of the same name or otherwise. The great popularity of Orton's Preparation has induced unprincipled persons to attempt palming upon the public counterfeit and inferior articles. Purchasers will please order direct from the Proprietor, or his duly authorized Agents.

The price of Orton's Preparation is $2 per box, or three boxes for $5, sent by mail to any part of the country, securely sealed from observation, with postage paid on receipt of price.

How to send money by mail.—Enclose the amount in a letter, seal carefully, register the letter and take a receipt for it from the Postmaster. Money sent by mail as above directed at my risk. Address

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering on [illegible] ence from the effects of secret indulgence, or from [illegible] absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, bloated and disfigured faces and their broken-down [illegible] tions disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends [illegible] any of these horrible life-destroying [illegible] they are cured [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, [illegible] made private disease his especial study [illegible] It is certain to cure the most inveterate case [illegible] cury or any injurious drugs. It is important [illegible] who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing [illegible] in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing [illegible] public by using the names of eminent physicians [illegible] European and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of [illegible] charlatans.

Seminal Weakness!

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse, [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited [illegible], producing with unerring certainty the [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combated by such [illegible] lassitude, [illegible] sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, [illegible] of the limbs, [illegible] blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of [illegible] flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief is not obtained, [illegible] immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are [illegible] under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibilities resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to [illegible] patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT home by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage or curiosity, to any part of the country, with full directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent through [illegible] or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the [illegible]. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen, and [illegible] lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office [illegible] etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, [illegible] will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid [illegible] is to make enquiry—it will cost you [illegible] may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, [illegible] in safety in trusting any of them until you [illegible] what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive [illegible] exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, [illegible] letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy [illegible] call at his office of his ability to treat [illegible] he proposes to cure.
